6. This should be a coherent explanation of the claimant's relationship with any licensee who is a judgment debtor, the nature of the transaction or transactions in which the claimant was involved with the licensee, and the nature of the involvement of any other person, particularly anyone else named as a plaintiff, defendant, cross-complainant, or cross-defendant. A chronological description is usually best.

7. Attach to the Application a statement by the claimant, signed under penalty of perjury, that the complaint upon which the underlying civil judgment is based was prosecuted conscientiously and in good faith. "Conscientiously and in good faith" means that no party potentially liable to the claimant in the underlying transaction was intentionally and without good cause omitted from the complaint, that no party named in the complaint who otherwise reasonably appeared capable of responding in damages was dismissed from the complaint intentionally and without good cause, and that the claimant employed no other procedural tactics contrary to the diligent prosecution of the complaint in order to provide access to the Consumer Recovery Account.

For an application based on a criminal restitution order, claimant must provide a statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that:

- The claimant has not intentionally and without good cause failed to pursue any person potentially liable to the claimant in the underlying transaction other than a defendant who is the subject of a criminal restitution order.
- The claimant has not intentionally and without good cause failed to pursue in a civil action for damages all persons potentially liable to the claimant in the underlying transaction who otherwise reasonably appeared capable of responding in damages other than a defendant who is the subject of a criminal restitution order.
- The claimant employed no other procedural means contrary to the diligent prosecution of the complaint in order to seek to qualify for the Consumer Recovery Account.

8. While this application is pending, claimant expressly agrees to notify the Consumer Recovery Account Unit in writing of any information he or she becomes aware of that any judgment debtor has filed for bankruptcy protection.

9. While this application is pending, claimant expressly agrees to notify the Consumer Recovery Account Unit in writing of any assignment or transfer of all or any part of his or her interest in the judgment or criminal restitution order.

PART II — ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

As indicated in the instructions to this Application, there are two ways an Application can be made substantially complete:

- A. By submitting all information listed in the Consumer Recovery Account statutes and regulations. This approach would be accomplished if:
 - 1) Part I of this form is completed and served upon the Bureau; and
 - 2) All of the information required by Regulation 3102 is supplied with the Application.
- B. By submitting all information required by statute, but less than all the items listed in Regulation 3102. This approach would be accomplished if:
 - 1) Part I of this form is completed and served upon the Bureau; and
 - 2) Enough information is submitted for the Bureau to make a determination whether the application qualifies, though not necessarily all the items listed in Regulation 3102, and the Bureau is allowed to notify the claimant if what was submitted is sufficient.

Therefore, to follow the second approach, after completing Part I of the Application, please answer the following questions and provide the following information:

1. Attach proof of service of the Notice and Application on the judgment debtor. The Application will not be treated as substantially complete without this item. See the Instructions or Section 10471.1(b) of the Business and Professions Code for what constitutes proper service.
2. Attach a copy of the civil complaint, cross-complaint, or the amended version of those documents upon which the civil judgment is based, or in the case of an application based on a criminal restitution order, a copy of the criminal indictment or information, and a copy of any minute order, statement of decision, or other statement by the court explaining the basis for the judgment or criminal restitution order.
3. What acts did any judgment debtor who is a licensee perform for you that required a real estate license?

4. If the judgment debtor was licensed only as a salesperson at the time of the transaction, was the broker who employed the judgment debtor at the time sued?..... ☐ Yes ☐ No

If not, why not?

5. Was any person liable or potentially liable to the claimant in the transaction either not sued or dismissed from the lawsuit? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If so, explain why, and itemize any funds or other consideration received from that person or persons in settlement of the potential liability of that person or persons.

6. Did any other person or persons liable or potentially liable to the claimant in the transaction file bankruptcy? ☐ Yes ☐ No

a. If no, proceed to Item #7.

b. If yes, please answer the following.

1) What is the name of the person or persons?.....

2) When did the person file bankruptcy?.....

3) Did the claimant file a claim in the bankruptcy?..... ☐ Yes ☐ No

If no, please explain why not.

- 4) Was any attempt made to have the debt to the claimant determined to be nondischargeable? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If no, please explain why not.

If yes, what was the result?

- 5) Was the debt underlying the judgment, and/or the judgment, discharged in the bankruptcy proceeding?

☐ Yes ☐ No

If yes, when?

7. Attach copies of abstracts of judgment bearing evidence of having been recorded in the county or counties in which the judgment debtor may possibly have assets.
